Letter No. 1696/126 dated the 23rd October 1902 from the Inspector General of Police, requesting sanction to a sum of Rs 29-13-0 on account of the cost of repairing guns & the cost of ammunition supplies to Mr. X. Shanmiengar, Retd Khedda Supdt.

Note

The Insp. Genl reports that 25 enfield rifles & certain ammunition were issued to Mr. X. Shanmiengar Retd Khedda superintendent on requisition on 7th July 1902 and a bill for Rs 29-13-0 being the cost incurred for repairing the guns & for the ammunition supplied was sent to him for payment and that he has not remitted the amount. He therefore requests that the amount may either be sanctioned or recovered from the Supdt to which it relates & remitted to this office

Subd for orders. The amount may, I think, be sanctioned. There is no Khedda now, and the operations against [illegible] were (if I am not mistaken) only temporarily undertaken.

[illegible] obliged to

if you could obtain a license for 300 twelve bore loaded shot cartridges and forward the same direct to the Coy to save delay.

I shall also intend [illegible] that they require 4 bore cartridges.

The camp ground [illegible] has been cleared. Sheds are being built for kitchen etc. Tents etc may be ordered early so that they may be pitched in time.

Supply arrangements by Amildar are also going. The cartridges are unfusible required before driving the elephants into the Kheddah

SIR,

I have the honor to state that 25 enfield rifles with 200 elongated ball cartridges and 520 percussion caps were issued to Mr. K. Shama Iyengar, Retired Khedda Superintendent on special duty at Mysore on requisition on the 7th July 1902 and a bill of cost for Rs 29-13-0 as per particulars noted in the margin sent to him for payment. He has not remitted the amount as as yet though several reminders were sent to him. As the Contractor who repaired the guns is pressing for payment, I request that the amount may either be sanctioned or recovered from the Department to which it relates and remitted to this Office at an early date.
